See His Face

Words and Music by Brian Cooney ©2009 Revivalbeat Music

How can I approach this King of glory
So far above me in every way
How can I behold this God of gods
Maybe He'll turn to me and extend His scepter towards me
Maybe He'll let me see His face

How can I be worthy of this love
He turned to me and called my name
How can I be standing in this place
He lavished His mercy on me, and His blood He has poured upon me
For I am a sinner saved by grace

Brand New Day

Words and Music by Brian Cooney ©2009 Revivalbeat Music

All things are new and the old now has all passed away
What was so painful then I can hardly remember today
You've flipped me upside down, Your faithfulness has blown me away
Now I know that You'll never leave me and I'll never doubt You again

You set my feet upon a rock
Picked me up from the miry clay
You took my hand, healed my wounds
Now I can finally say
It's a brand new day!

Through valleys of darkness You lead me 'cause Your ways are higher than mine
But You've fixed all I've broken now I'm twice as strong on the other side
You are my Daddy I will run to You, this prodigal has You as my friend
'Cause now I know that You'll never leave me and I'll never doubt You again

Savior

Words and Music by Brian Cooney ©2009 Revivalbeat Music

I sing praises to You God, my Savior
Your mercies never end
You set the prisoners free and restore our joy

You are great, You are good
I bow down and honor You
You're my life, and my song
In a world that's all gone wrong
You are the Savior

I sing praises to You God, my Savior
You carry me in Your arms
Father to the fatherless, defender of the weak

Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord, Hosanna! Hosanna!

You

Words and Music by Brian Cooney ©2009 Revivalbeat Music

Lord of glory
Son of man
Cursed and broken
Raised again
King of heaven
Faithful to the end
Jesus my God, my All, my friend

All I want is You
All I need is You
Every breath from You makes me come alive
My only song is You
My only dream is You
My heartbeat is You
And this rhythm cannot die

Where Is Your Sting

Words and Music by Brian Cooney ©2009 Revivalbeat Music

You died for all
And I died with You and I live
A corpse brought to life
The breath I was took, now I give

Death where is your sting?
Death where is your sting?

Crowned with my guilt
Scarred on Your back with my shame
Your death slew my night
Your blackness my sorrow, brought down to the grave

All that I have and I'll ever be is in You
All that I have and I'll ever be is in You

Not Of This World

Words and Music by Brian Cooney ©2009 Revivalbeat Music

My blessed child
This day I give you to the One
Who gave his life
To draw you close and lift you high
Above the kingdoms of this world
To demonstrate His mighty power
You are a king and priest forever

My blessed child
This day I give you to the One
Who made His plans
Before the dawning of all time
He formed you in your mother's womb
To be the image of His Son
You are a king and priest forever

(Not Of This World Continued)

You're not of this world
You're not of this race
Reaching down from heaven
You're his hand of grace
And the world will see
By your deeds of love
You're a breath from heaven
You're His kingdom come

My blessed child
This day I give you to the one
Who loves you more
Than any human heart could love
You are His treasure and His prize
His one desire, His precious bride
He rejoices over you with singing

I Want To Know

Words and Music by Brian Cooney ©2009 Revivalbeat Music

I walk alone in this world of darkness
It's the only life that I've known
Not really sure what will come tomorrow
Don't have any answers at all

What is this light they are talking about
Who sets these prisoners free
What is this love that is reaching out
I want to know, I want to know is it real

I want to know what it really means to be alive
I want to know what it means to be free
I want to know who is this Jesus Christ
That He would die for me

No where to run when my sky is falling
There's no one holding my hand
No where to turn when the devil comes calling
I can't find no shelter in man

So Glad

Words and Music by Neil Cooney and Brian Cooney ©2009 Revivalbeat Music

I'm so in love with You Jesus, almost forgot what I had Pull me closer my Savior, make me so glad

I'm so in love with you Jesus, cool stream in dry desert sands
Draw me closer my Savior, make me so glad

Nothing compares to the touch of Your hand, nothing compares to Your grace and Your mercy
Nothing compares to the way that I feel when I'm with You
Nothing compares to the look in Your eyes, nothing compares to this voice that brings healing
Nothing compares to the way that I feel when I'm with You

Let It Burn

Words and Music by Brian Cooney ©2009 Revivalbeat Music

I am desperate Lord, for a deeper touch one that will change my world, one that will pierce my heart

For I am tired Lord, of living day to day
Chasing my heart's desires, while pushing Yours, pushing Yours away

Lord You promised power
Power to change the world
Let Your fire touch me now, let it burn

Let it burn, Lord consume my soul, let it burn

Throw Your weight upon my shoulders
Strap Your purpose to my soul
Let this burden that You carry
Be the only burden that I know
Help me raise this cup my Father
And I will drink the tears you cry
For all I want to know is Jesus, and Him crucified

Just One

Words and Music by Brian Cooney ©2009 Revivalbeat Music

Just one touch from Your hand
Just one touch from Your hand on my shoulder
Just one touch from Your hand and I am made whole
I am made whole

Just one word from Your mouth
Just one word and my heart's set on fire
Just one word from Your mouth and I am made whole
I am made whole

Just like the woman with the issue of blood I come
To touch the hem of Your garment
And like the blind man at the side of the road I cry out
Son of David have mercy on me

Just one glance from Your eyes
Just one glance from Your eyes my way
Just one glance from Your eyes and I am made whole
I am made whole

Born

Words and Music by Brian Cooney ©2009 Revivalbeat Music

Before you were born I knew you
Before your first breath I held your dreams inside my heart
I know every day that's set before you
For I have plans to prosper you and never bring you harm

Plans to give you hope and a future
Plans to lift you high above the kingdoms of this world
No eye has ever seen no ear has heard
I'm in love with you, I'm in love with you.

Glory Fall

Words and Music by Brian Cooney ©2009 Revivalbeat Music

Remember on the mountain, when smoke would rise and earth would quake
And every heart would tremble, unable to hear what was spoken
Remember in the desert, You sent a fire by night a cloud by day
To rest above Your meeting place, Father meet us face to face

Let Your glory fall, in this sanctuary
Let Your glory fall, we long to see Your face
Let Your glory fall, in this sanctuary

Remember in the temple, when every servant could not stand
Beneath Your cloud of glory, falling down upon their faces
Father hide me in the cleft, let Your glory pass on by Walk upon Your people's praises, step beyond the veil

There's no One like You
